Fourth Customs Cooperation Committee Meeting of the Central Asia Regional Economic Cooperation Program

7-9 September 2005, Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia

Honourable Delegates and Observers,

Ladies and Gentlemen;

Having dealt with the last item on the Agenda for this Fourth Meeting of the Customs Cooperation Committee, it is now my duty to bring the Meeting to a close. However, before I do that, I would like to make just a few short remarks.

I would like to thank all of you for your significant contributions and in particular, I would like to thank to the ADB staff, who made such extensive contributions to the success of the Meeting.

The accumulation of Customs knowledge and experience at this Meeting has enabled us to achieve an excellent resolution for dealing with the Regional Trade Facilitation and Customs Cooperation Program.

I should also express my gratitude to the many other customs staff who have spent so many hours working in the Secretariat and as Coordinators.

Honourable Delegates and Observers,

Ladies and Gentlemen;

I thank you again for your confidence in me as Chairman and for your support throughout the Meeting and, having said that, I now declare the Fourth Meeting of the Customs Cooperation Committee closed.

I wish all the delegates a safe journey.
