Comments of the State Agency on Public Procurement and Material Reserves under the Government of the Kyrgyz Republic on proposals of contracting organizations

- The key goals of the KR Law On Public Procurement are undermined:
 - Ensuring maximum effectiveness and cost-efficiency of procurement
 - Increasing participation and development of competition among suppliers (contractors) in procurement process
 - Ensuring fair treatment of all suppliers (contractors)
 - Ensuring transparency of procurement procedures
- There is a possibility of numerous appeals (complaints) by a majority of suppliers (contractors), who represent small businesses
- Amendments to the contract terms will result to numerous changes not only in terms of price, but also other conditions. Each of the parties will introduce amendments and addenda to the contract given its own interest
- Approval of the minutes of procurement procedures may result in corruptive practices
- It is abundant to introduce the declaration, as the Law envisages to provide bid security. This will create additional burden for suppliers (contractors) when preparing bids.

Proposals of the State Agency on Public Procurement and Material Reserves under the Government of the Kyrgyz Republic

- To publish a regulatory act of the Government of the Kyrgyz Republic obliging to place orders with societies of disabled.
