

Kathleen Anne C. Coballes is a Climate Change Officer under the Central and West Asia Department, Environment and Natural Resources Division of the Asian Development Bank (ADB). Prior to her employment in ADB, she served as the Climate Change Attaché at the British Embassy Manila where she led the engagement and cooperation for the 26th Conference of Parties and provided oversight on UK's environment and climate portfolio in the Philippines. She also has over a decade of experience as a development worker/specialist as part of the National Economic and Development Authority of the Philippines, where she headed a division that deals with environment and climate change. She has a degree on Forest and Nature Conservation from the Wageningen University and Research Center and a Bachelor of Science degree in Forestry from the University of the Philippines.