Practice of Phase 1 Implementation

Expected Results of Phase 1

To promote consistency and coordination of customs controls between China and Kazakhstan, and to improve customs clearance efficiency.

Improved Cooperation between PRC customs and KAZ customs

- Outlines of Cooperation between the General Administration of Customs of PRC and the Ministry of Finance Customs Control Committee of KAZ (2009-2011)
 - To improve border control procedures, to enable a closer coordination between the two countries' customs, and to reduce customs clearance time for goods and vehicles.
 - To improve customs clearance efficiency, and to establish a transparent and equal clearance system
 - To improve cooperation between PRC and KAZ on the control of import/export cargos, goods, and transport vehicles.
 - To simplify customs producers, including transit transport, to equip the customs with necessary control facilities, and to improve control environment for cargo, goods and vehicles.
 - To improve cooperation on capacity building, in order to enhance the customs work capacity and improve work efficiency.

1 Pre-declaration of Cargo Manifest

Future Plans

2 Pre-declaration of import goods

3 Classification inspection and management of import/export goods

4 Paperless customs clearance
