

STATE PLANT PROTECTION SERVICE
MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE
TURKMENISTAN

INTRODUCTION TO The State Plant Protection Service of Turkmenistan

Turkmenistan has achieved a significant level of import substitution for many food items and other consumer goods owing to the accelerated development of agriculture in the country. The domestic agro-industry demonstrates high economic results, thus reaffirming its significant potential, which effectively benefits the people of Turkmenistan and serves as a guarantee for the further prosperity of the beloved homeland.

The State Plant Protection Service of Turkmenistan is part of the agro-industrial complex of our country.

The key document establishing the phytosanitary control procedure for the goods moved across the customs border is:

The Law of Turkmenistan dd 15.08.2009 No. 50 - IV "On Plant Protection", as amended on 12.01.2016 No. 331 "Concerning Implementation of the Law of Turkmenistan "On Plant Protection"" and on 08.05.2022 No. 484-VI and "Regulations on External Plant Protection" and registered by the Ministry of Adalat with ref No 1581, regarding data support and use of ICT in the field of plant protection.

The Ministry of Agriculture as the central executive body and the State Plant Protection Service are mandated to govern any plant quarantine and protection related issues.

ASYCUDA system is operational at 10 border crossings points in Turkemistan:

Turkmenistan's Single Window platform, modules and components

Interagency business processes

The Ministry of Trade and Foreign Economic Relations of Turkmenistan together with the International Trade Center (ITC) developed a Trade Facilitation Portal for Turkmenistan as part of the Regional Ready4Trade Central Asia Project. On 4 April 2023, the trade information portal of Turkmenistan was launched.

Today, the Ministry of Trade and Foreign Economic Relations of Turkmenistan has reached an important milestone in its reform program, in particular the "Program of the President of Turkmenistan for the Socioeconomic Development 2019-2025", to facilitate the development of SMEs.

The Government of Turkmenistan is investing considerable efforts to support businesses, provide enabling environment for the trade, and build linkages with the European Union and the global market.

Our government is focusing on the WTO accession process as a tool to enhance competitiveness. Specific steps have been taken to get integrated with the multilateral trading system in order to expand country's economic potential for open, transparent and equitable trade with neighboring countries and beyond.
